

Finance Committee Member Opportunity

May 2022

DO YOU HAVE FINANCIAL SKILLS TO OFFER JAMYANG?

Finance Committee Member Volunteer Opportunity Available:

Sound financial planning and management is more important than ever during these challenging times, when along with other charities, Jamyang London needs to think creatively and make smart decisions about how to continue offering service and taking care of our staff and volunteers while ensuring the financial wellbeing of the centre.

If you care about Jamyang and its work, and have financial expertise can you help us with this task?

Qualifications & Requirements:

- The main qualification we're seeking is a heartfelt wish to offer service to the Dharma
- Expertise in the following areas would be welcomed:
  - Finance professional background such as accounting
  - Knowledge of financial policy and procedures in general, ideally for charities specifically
- Willingness to take on an occasional finance related special project
- Commitment to attend quarterly Committee meetings

Time Commitment:

- Estimated at three-hours per month
- Quarterly Finance Committee Meetings plus occasional interim meetings

If you feel you can help, please complete this Expression of Interest form and we'll be in touch!
